CEFR Common Reference Levels

A Basic User

A1

- can understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases aimed at the satisfaction of needs of a concrete type
- can introduce him/herself and others and can ask and answer questions about personal details such as where he/she lives, people he/she knows and things he/she has
- can interact in a simple way provided the other person talks slowly and clearly and is prepared to help

- can understand sentences and frequently used expressions related to areas of most immediate relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment)
- can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar and routine matters
- can describe in simple terms aspects of his/her background, immediate environment and matters in areas of immediate need

B Independent User

B1

- can understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc.
- can deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken
- can produce simple connected text on topics, which are familiar, or of personal interest
- can describe experiences and events, dreams, hopes & ambitions and briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans.

- can understand the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in his/her field of specialisation
- can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party
- can produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options

C Proficient User

C1

- can understand a wide range of demanding, longer texts, and recognise implicit meaning
- can express him/herself fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions
- can use language flexibly and effectively for social, academic and professional purposes
- - can produce clear, well-structured, detailed text on complex subjects, showing controlled use of organisational patterns, connectors and cohesive devices

- can understand with ease virtually everything heard or read
- can summarise information from different spoken and written sources, reconstructing arguments and accounts in a coherent presentation
- can express him/herself spontaneously, very fluently and precisely, differentiating finer shades of meaning even in more complex situations
